

I can't understand how Sinclair network can air a clearly partisan attack on John Kerry by pretending that this is a news story. This is clearly a substantial donation to the Bush-Cheney campaign with the hope of influencing the election. The network must be required to make equally valuable time available to the Kerry campaign.